Mariel was extremely patient and helpful as I transferred my business over to Xero and got a better grasp of what I needed to be monitoring. She explained things I should be checking regularly, how to run reports, ways to keep my inventory costs down, and so much more. Her team now runs all of my book keeping and financial management, and it is such a relief to know that side of my business is taken care of. From a day to day perspective, they are efficient, responsive, and are always available to help answer any questions I have, regardless of how small. I highly, highly recommend Mariel and her team – I wouldn't be where I am today (now opening my first store!) without them.

MALLORY OF SHOP SHELTER

Washington, DC

We looked at a number of cloud based bookkeeping firms that are Xero experts and ended up going with Accounting For Jewelers. We like the idea of going with a firm that understands the jewelry business. Instead of trying to explain what findings or sizing stock is to our bookkeeper, we are engaged with someone that understands the nuances of our business. Mariel's team are not only experts with Xero, but with all the add on products. Bill.com, Gusto, etc. They also know the ins and out of working with our major vendors. Accounting For Jewelers is a key partner for us.

I would highly recommend Accounting for Jewelers for every stage of your business. I cannot say enough about the expertise and encouragement I have received from them. I feel confident and empowered by their work and trust that they are true partners. I can honestly say that SoulKu would not be on track to once again double our sales in 2018 without the guidance and dedication of Accounting for Jewelers.

I am much more at ease now that I have a brilliant team of individuals at Accounting for Jewelers who always have my business' best interest in mind. Mariel, Eric, and Auburn are so helpful and transparent in what they do for me. I consider Accounting for Jewelers one of my most valuable assets because I can always ask questions and there is always someone there with answers! 100% recommend.
