

Taxpayers often start out by trying to handle their IRS problem by themselves (or with their current tax preparer), but end up with unsatisfactory results. Mark Gleason has studied IRS rules and regulations for years and can speak to the IRS in its own language. The solution to your problem usually involves making the IRS understand their errors and/or negotiating a realistic solution that works for you and your family.

SOLUTIONS MAY INCLUDE

...Identifying IRS errors. Mark has more experience and is more knowledgeable than most IRS employees. IRS computer generated notices are often incorrect.

...Filing unfiled tax returns. You can often reduce the taxes and penalties owed by filing original tax returns if not previously filed.

...Negotiating a payment plan. Offer the IRS a payment plan that is workable for you.

...Demanding an appeal of the taxes owed. Request that the IRS re-examine your case in order to correct their errors and reduce the amount you owe.

...Negotiating an offer for a discounted settlement. Offer payment of a lower amount to wipe out your entire tax liability and release federal tax Liens

...Requesting a reduction in penalties. Valid reasons can call for a reduction in penalties.

We can also represent you before your state Department of Revenue.
