

Pierre Philantrope is the founder and managing director of Pierre Tax Group, LLC.

Mr. Philantrope has over 20 years of experience in advising and preparing tax returns for individuals and small businesses and providing French and Creole translation and interpretation services. He has also worked for over 15 years in the legal field for several firms, in different high-profile mergers and acquisitions, class actions, and litigation cases assisting individuals and corporate clients. He has been consistently acknowledged for strong work ethic, and good academic and professional performance.

Mr. Philantrope was born in Gonaives, Haiti and immigrated to the United States in the early 1990s. He graduated with a Bachelor of Laws from Gonaives School of Law and Economical Sciences of the State University of Haiti in 1992. In 1995, he earned an Associate degree from Essex County College and a Bachelor of Science degree from Rutgers University in 1997. He obtained a Master of Laws in Taxation, with a concentration in International Taxation from the University of Florida Levin College of Law in 2005. He is an IRS enrolled agent.

Mr. Philantrope strongly believes that quality service and good customer service are the key to attract and keep clients. He focuses his practice in tax planning, tax representation, tax consulting, and tax preparation.

He has a passion for helping people and has been involved in several volunteer and professional organizations throughout his career.